

Club Champs Day 1 – 5Km

Club Champs Day 1 – 5Km – Cowling Rd

Conditions this year were perfect for fast racing, there was a bit of a frost with brilliant sunshine and no wind. The stunning vista was the only thing that could have slowed anybody down; no I am not talking about me but the view of rolling countryside to the sea with the backdrop of the jackup rig and Paritutu. Did none of you see this, well there are some perks to judging on a day like today. The audience was extremely appreciative of the racing as well; they seemed to be in fine form with their noise. They seemed to have most enthusiasm for Brian, this maybe due to Brian sharing the paddock with them 2 years ago when he try to herd them up, this year they stayed on the right side of the fence.

On the first lap Eric was gliding along in first place followed by Steam engine Mike (he drowned out the herd of cows with the noise of his effort) and then a labouring Harry. There was some talk of Suzy or Patel the waiter who had spiked his food the previous night, accounting for his labour pains. Next positions were Wacky and Jeff. Wacky showed no ill effects from winning the marathon in Wellington the previous Sunday.

Today's Points:
Sherryn H 8 pts
Anne 7 pts
Neil 6 pts
Eric 5 pts
Mike 4 pts
Helen 3 pts

After this we had one of the most intriguing battles of the day; with Rachel away and Vanessa taking early retirement to Queensland it was Sherryn against Serena for the Woman's championship. There was certainly no holding back from either of them in the first lap with very little between them.

In the second lap Eric opened the gap on Mike and came home in a very smart 27m1s to retain his Championship. Mike easily took second and Harry third. In the 5km women's championship. Sherryn pulled away from Serena in the second half to win in a very quick 31m26s; Serena taught everyone a lesson – if you drink the red wine instead of giving it to the handicapper then it effects your performance! In the men's 3km championship, Arthur did 26m20s.

One of the best races to watch was the battle between Neil, Helen and Anne. On the first lap, Anne was behind Neil and Helen, but with 1K to go, Helen and Anne were neck and neck with Neil trying to stay with them. At the end Anne came home strongest to win the W55 age group from Helen with a 20 second margin.

Sherryn not only took out the Woman’s championship but the effort gained her 8 points and took her into the lead on the points ladder. Anne gained 7 points and Neil 6. On the Points trophy ladder Sherryn now leads Mike by 2 points with Arthur a further 3 points behind.

Many thanks to Lorraine and Gary for the morning tea and also thanks to Trevor; Peter; Colin and Graeme for helping.
