

Club Championships Day 2

20 September 2015

Introducing the 2015 10k Club Champions

We had to have a little inclement weather at some point this season and don't say I didn't warn you about the Onaero trot. We started into a nice keen south easterly for nearly 2K and then really hit it when we turned at the 5K mark (2K of just toughing it out). The last ones to finish were treated to some nice cooling showers for about 20 minutes just in case they had over heated. My thanks goes to all the helpers who went beyond the call of duty today; especially the timekeepers (Trevor and Peter).

The club Champions over 10K for 2015 are Eric in 56 minutes 57s; Rachel in 1h1m30s and in the 53K for the 85 plus age group, Arthur did a great time of 44m48s. Hannah managed her 3K in 22m 58s.

During the season of doing the write ups I hope people get a bit of entertainment out of them, I do try you know. I always find it difficult when it comes to the second day club champs – I see people off in the distance, grimace at them as they come back the other way and then see them finish. In the men's club champs today, the battle for second was an intriguing one. Wacky had started conservatively (in fact I was on his shoulder at 1K) and then he started to race at about 2K as he opened a gap on Rachel and Jeff. At about 5K he caught and passed Harry and it looked all over. With 1K to go Harry had found another gear, easing past Wacky and finishing nearly a minute ahead of him.

I am still trying to imagine this, the more I think about it the more funny it sounds. Sherryn (mini me) walked in front of Dennis for a couple of Ks so that she could shelter him from the wind! I guess at least his knees kept warm. At some point in the race the roles reversed and Dennis took the lead until the wind was behind them and then after using him Sherryn took off and came home a minute in front of Dennis – good to see Sherryn back after a long layoff though.

Many thanks to Tony and Anne for a great morning tea. Well done to everybody for turning up today; the conditions were certainly a challenge.
