

TARANAKI RACE WALKING CLUB

THE GIBBON'S TIME TRIAL

3 JULY 2016

SOUP TIME!!

A lovely freezing Inglewood morning for a time trial. Luckily that bodes well for a soon to be nice day. Most walkers started the race with an extra layer or two but most had discarded all but the vital necessities before the finish.

As this was the last style event for the season everyone was out to walk on their very best Sunday behaviour. I heard a number of positive comments from the judges after the event which was fantastic to hear. Many thanks to our judges for your valuable time and wisdom shared with our club members.

MaryAnne started everyone off with a handy lead on Neil and Michelle. Anne, Dave B, Gaylene and Helen started closely grouped together. Jeff started early to work on his style. I felt like I was in no man's land again today with nobody either side of me for some distance. Alan and Peter F started close together but Peter F decided early on he wasn't hanging about. Obviously it's the cold that fires him up on a Sunday morning as his rocket burners were well fired up today. He's been walking and talking the last few events but obviously he's chucked in the talk, with a very fast race today reaching the finish line 1st. Neil was only 14s behind him in 2nd place, with Tamaari enjoying a brisk walk 3s back for 3rd. Fantastic to have him out with us again today although I have to admit I never saw him on the course. Maybe I need to start wearing my glasses.

Eric flew past me early in the race causing me a big panic until I remembered he was a lap behind phew! After 6 laps I started pushing as hard as I could to try to hold out Eric and Alan who I knew must be closing quickly. I slowly pulled in the figures in the distance. I thought I was walking ok but couldn't spot Anne or Helen anywhere in front. They both walked under handicap and stayed ahead. I'm sure Helen heard my asthma chug from half a k back and didn't let me get any closer. Marlene and Sue finished together both 17s faster than handicap even though they both started on different handicaps and had different total walk times. How did they co-ordinate that!

Thanks to all the helpers today. We appreciate your cheery faces and encouraging support. Special thanks to our hosts, Theresa and Colin for sharing their home with us all and providing the delicious morning tea.
